11. [] Vince Auglierre, on the staff of the House Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Government Information, said Mr. Dawson had received a query from one [] who is interested in employment with the consulate []. Apparently he has been in touch with a person by the name []. While Dawson has written to the Secretary of State endorsing the application for employment []

12. [] Talked with Representative Lawrence G. Williams in connection with the Braden article appearing in the forthcoming issue of the SATURDAY EVENING POST. He was able to secure information that about one million copies have now been printed out of the total run of 7.2 million. He indicated that it would be extremely expensive to make any changes now but he would put us in touch with the Curtis Publishing Company if we desired.

After checking with the Director, I indicated to Mr. Williams that this was not necessary. Mr. Williams was extremely helpful and was anxious to do everything he could to assist us. I thanked him very much on behalf of the Director.

13. [] Dan O'Brien, Administrative Assistant to Senator Hickenlooper, indicated that a [] from Iowa, in the newspaper business, wished to be of assistance to the Agency, and wanted to be in touch while in Washington. I told O'Brien that I would contact [] personally and make the necessary arrangements.

Subsequently, I did talk with [] and made arrangements to put him in touch with [] tomorrow morning.

14. [] Talked with Peggy McDonald, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson, indicating that [] had a most satisfactory interview with the FBI following her interview with the Agency. Apparently, there was a mix up. Miss McDonald said they had heard from [] and Senator Jackson was most appreciative of our assistance.
